KẾ HOẠCH

V/v tổ chức Tuần học Residence Weekend 2025, khóa VEMBA 32 tại Vũng Tàu

Kính gửi: Ban Giám hiệu Trường Đại học Văn Lang

Theo kế hoạch, học phần Corporate Entrepreneurship and Innovation của Khóa VEMBA 32 (khóa 1 trong hợp tác với trường Đại học Văn Lang - VLU) sẽ được tổ chức tại cơ sở chính của VLU. Tuy nhiên, để tăng cường nối kết giữa VEMBA 32 và VEMBA 33 (khóa 2, mới tuyển), phía đối tác là Đại học Hawai'i (UH) đề nghị sẽ tổ chức học phần này tại Vũng Tàu, cùng địa điểm và thời gian của VEMBA 33. Viện Sau đại học nhận thấy đề nghị này là phù hợp vì các lý do sau:

1. Củng cố cộng đồng VEMBA và nâng cao uy tín chương trình: Sự kiện giúp kết nối sâu rộng các thế hệ học viên (Alumni, VEMBA 32, VEMBA 33). VEMBA 32 đồng hành cùng UH & VLU trong việc chào đón học viên khóa mới như: phụ trách chính trong việc thực hiện chương trình chào đón sinh viên mới: hoạt động Team Building bãi biển, Gala Dinner. Lực lượng nòng cốt VEMBA 32 làm đại sứ sẽ tạo ra hiệu ứng quảng bá tự nhiên và tăng cường sức hút tiềm năng cho các khóa tuyển sinh sau.
2. Kết nối giảng viên uy tín cho VEMBA 33: Việc tổ chức song song khóa học của khóa VEMBA 32 - MGT 651 Corporate Entrepreneurship and Innovation - với giảng viên uy tín tạo điều kiện cho học viên VEMBA 33 tiếp cận chất lượng chương trình cao nhất ngay từ ngày đầu nhập học, đồng thời thiết lập mối quan hệ cố vấn giá trị (đính kèm profile của giảng viên Trung Dũng).

I. NỘI DUNG CHƯƠNG TRÌNH

1. Thời gian: Thứ Bảy đến Chủ nhật, ngày 17 đến 18/10/2025
2. Địa điểm: tại Resort Lan Rừng, Phước Hải, TP Vũng Tàu
3. Môn học: MGT 651: Corporate Entrepreneurship and Innovation
4. Đối tượng: Học viên VEMBA Khóa 32, Giảng viên
5. Chương trình học: đính kèm Phụ lục A: Bảng 1

II. KINH PHÍ

- Kinh phí chi tiết phần tổ chức khóa học tại Vũng Tàu (bao gồm phòng học, teabreak và ăn trưa) so với tổ chức tại VLU (bao gồm teabreak và ăn trưa) được trình bày chi tiết trong Bảng 2, phụ lục A đính kèm. Các chi phí khác bao gồm: chi phí lưu trú, ăn trưa 1 buổi thứ Bảy (1 buổi trong số 2 buổi trưa), phương tiện di chuyển đi và về sẽ do học viên VEMBA 32 sẽ tự túc.
- Phần kinh phí chênh lệch để tổ chức khóa học tại Vũng Tàu là chi phí marketing, thuộc trách nhiệm của VLU trong Thỏa thuận hợp tác giữa VLU và UH, theo Mục 3 "Revenue sharing and obligation" (trang 10). Chi phí chênh lệch 32.786.660đ (ba mươi hai triệu bảy trăm tám mươi sáu ngàn sáu trăm sáu mươi sáu đồng chẵn) sẽ phân bổ vào ngân sách Marketing của chương trình trong năm học 2025-2026.
- Việc tổ chức Tuần học Residence Weekend 2025 cho Khóa VEMBA 32 tại Vũng Tàu là một khoản đầu tư chiến lược mang lại giá trị đa chiều: củng cố nội lực cộng đồng VEMBA, nâng cao chất lượng trải nghiệm học viên là chất liệu cho việc quảng bá cho những đợt tuyển sinh trong tương lai, đồng thời tăng cường uy tín, hình ảnh chất lượng của chương trình trong thị trường đào tạo Thạc sĩ Quản trị Kinh doanh hiện nay.

Kính mong Ban Giám hiệu xem xét và phê duyệt đề xuất trên.

Trân trọng./.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

between

UNIVERSITY OF HAWAI'I AT MĀNOA, USA

VAN LANG UNIVERSITY, VIETNAM

The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is to establish a framework for collaboration between the University of Hawai'i (hereafter referred to as UH) and Van Lang University (hereafter referred to as VLU) delivery of degree programs in Vietnam. UH and VLU hereby enter into this MOU to lay the foundation from which UH and VLU can develop and enhance their distinction and reputation as internationally-recognized universities.

WHEREAS, UH and VLU are committed to establish their cooperation between two universities in providing educational opportunities for students in order that they may develop themselves for a purposeful, rewarding and useful life. Both institutions recognize the value of collaboration across international boundaries to bring mutual benefits and to further education, training and research relations between our countries.

THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and for the other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, UH and VLU hereby agree as follows:

SCOPE OF COOPERATION

The University of Hawaii agrees to endeavor to:

1. Cooperate with VLU to design, market, implement and deliver UH degree programs consistent with the mandates of UH and its accrediting bodies.
2. Support exchanges of faculty and staff for the mutual benefits of VLU and UH.
3. Provide enrichment opportunities for the faculty and staff of VLU, including encouraging VLU staff, as appropriate, to shadow and participate in courses taught, where appropriate; and exchange academic materials and publications.
4. Collaborate with VLU, where appropriate, in advising on teaching methods, tutoring and mentoring, research and development projects, and consultancy studies.
5. Explore programs to be offered in collaboration with VLU, including future undergraduate and graduate programs to be determined by mutual agreement of the parties and described by separate Memoranda of Agreement.

Van Lang University agrees to endeavor to:

1. Foster and develop mechanisms that would enhance its collaboration with the UH, including granting the UH use of Van Lang University's educational and governmental licenses.
2. Provide the UH with marketing, recruitment, logistical and programmatic support for UH programs.
3. Collaborate in events to market and disseminate information about UH programs.
4. Provide organizational and logistical support for in-person class sessions.
5. Support UH alumni activities, and other education outreach activities in Vietnam.

This Memorandum of Understanding shall be effective for a period of five (5) years from the date signed by both parties. Furthermore, either party may propose to extend this agreement for another period of up to 5 (five) years, and such extension must be approved by both parties at least six (6 months) before the initial five-year period.

The signatories will promote cooperation and collaboration and jointly agree to the terms set forth above. This memorandum of understanding is subject to change with the mutual consent of both parties.

Agreed:

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT between
THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAI'I, USA
and
for the
DELIVERY OF THE VIETNAM EXECUTIVE MBA PROGRAM (VEMBA)

This Memorandum of Agreement (hereafter referred to as MOA) between University of Hawai'i (hereafter referred to as UH), and Van Lang University (hereafter referred to as VLU) is entered into as of the ..18th..... day of March 2024. (This info will be inserted once the agreement is fully executed.)

WHEREAS, UH and VLU are committed to establish their cooperation between two universities in providing business educational opportunities for students in order that they may develop themselves for a purposeful, rewarding and useful life. Both institutions recognize the value of collaboration across international boundaries to bring mutual benefits and to further education, training and research relations between our countries.

THEREFORE, UH and VLU hereby agree to elevate the Vietnam Executive Masters of Business Administration (VEMBA) which started in 2001 to a new level, making it a high-impact Vietnam-centric regional graduate business program.

Article 1: RESPONSIBILITY and OBLIGATIONS

1.1. University of Hawai'i

1.1.1. UH agrees to collaborate through the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa (UH Mānoa) and its academic unit, the Shidler College of Business (UH-Shidler), with VLU as the Vietnam local university partner in offering in Vietnam the MBA program (VEMBA) during the terms of this MOA. The degree program will be the same degree awarded to the MBA graduates taking classes at the University of Hawaii at Manoa campus.

1.1.2. UH Mānoa, as the degree awarding institution, and UH-Shidler, as the academic unit delivering the program, shall be entitled at their absolute discretion to modify and/or cancel any of the courses during the term of this Agreement to ensure the best graduate education to enrolled students. UH will notify VLU of the changes in writing one (1) month prior to the implementation of the changes.

1.1.3. In collaboration with VLU, UH-Shidler holds the primary responsibility for overseeing teaching and student administration throughout the VEMBA program.

1.1.4. UH-Shidler shall provide VLU with necessary information, enabling VLU to effectively manage academic administration, maintain accurate record, and adhere to education and training regulations in Vietnam.

Before the start of the VEMBA program, UH-Shidler will provide VLU with:

- List of admitted students;
- Letters of Admission for admitted students and their applications;
- Curriculum, syllabi, schedules of classes and updated changes;

After the end of the VEMBA program, UH-Shidler will provide VLU with:

- List of graduates of each cohort;
- Academic progress of students at the end of each semester (Pass/ Fail); a list of students who enrolled, dropped, applied for leave of absence, re-enrolled, re-admitted, and other significant changes in their student status.
- Information/ student records in order for VLU to verify students' academic status in the collaborative program if required by the students to complete the degree conferral procedure
- Updated list of alumni.

1.1.5. UH-Shidler will support exchanges of staff, faculty, faculty sabbatical, and other forms of scholarly activities to promote the mission of international education and training excellence of the two partners;

1.1.6. UH-Shidler will support exchanges academic materials and publications;

1.1.7. UH-Shidler will collaborate with VLU, whenever feasible, to enhance VLU's curricula, teaching methods, research and project development, and consulting case studies;

1.1.8. UH-Shidler will organize at least one (01) special seminar/workshop per year, conducted by UH speaker(s) upon their availability while traveling to HCMC for teaching, at VLU campus to the benefits of VLU faculty members, staff and students;

1.1.9. UH-Shidler will share program administration and experiences of a long-time AACSB accredited institution with VLU where possible;

1.1.10. UH-Shidler will cooperate with VLU to help promote the two universities by designing, marketing, implementing, and delivering the VEMBA degree program consistent with the mandates of the Shidler College of Business AACSB accreditation and with the attached Appendix, entitled "Program Guidelines";

1.1.11. UH-Shidler will include and prominently place the VLU on marketing materials such as brochures, pamphlets, press releases, website, and other marketing channels, and copies of such materials will be made available to VLU;

1.1.12 UH-Shidler will be committed to managing the VEMBA Program and any additional programs.

1.1.13 UH-Shidler will appoint Dr. Tung Bui as the VEMBA Faculty Director, and Dr. Chi Diep, as the VEMBA Program Manager to manage the program, coordinating with other functional units to ensure the effective operation of the collaborative program. The Faculty Director and the VEMBA Program Manager report to the Dean of the UH Shidler College of Business.

1.1.14. UH-Shidler may appoint an Executive Director to work with VLU, to assist VLU with the effective execution of the VEMBA program and other related activities. This person will report to the Shidler VEMBA Faculty Director, and will serve as the liaison with VLU staff assigned to the UH-VLU collaboration

1.2. Van Lang University

1.2.1. With the active involvement of UH-Shidler, VLU is responsible for marketing, recruitment, course support, student administration, logistics support which includes but not limited to office space and classroom, organization of the launching and commencement ceremonies in Vietnam. VLU will be responsible for the organization of the in-person portion of the class instruction, to include facility rental, meals to students in residence, transportation and lodging subsidies, that are commensurate with a world-class executive education program.

1.2.2. VLU will work with UH-Shidler in promoting recruitment via VLU media resources and events such as Information Day;

1.2.3. VLU will work with UH-Shidler in student admission, teaching activities, and student administration;

1.2.4. Under its educational and governmental licenses and within the framework of this Agreement, VLU will continue to support and enhance its collaboration with the Shidler College of Business in delivering the VEMBA program in Vietnam, and, whenever beneficial to both institutions, other related activities. VLU shall hold and maintain at all times during the term of this Agreement all licenses, consents, authorizations and registrations and comply with all necessary laws and regulations in Vietnam to allow UH-Shidler to jointly deliver the VEMBA program in Vietnam.

1.2.5. VLU will provide related documents of the VEMBA Program to governmental agencies as required during the annual assessment relating to collaborative programs between Vietnamese institutions and their foreign partners;

1.2.6. VLU will submit annual reports to Vietnam's Ministry of Education and Training (MOET) about the VEMBA program, whenever appropriate;

1.2.7. VLU will prepare the application for program extension at least six months prior to the expiration day of the program executive License;

1.2.8. VLU will inform UH of the updated regulations in the organization, management and extension of collaborative programs not less than a month from the effective date (if possible).

1.2.9. VLU will issue relevant documentation for filling and training management purposes, to include certification of student's academic completion in the collaborative program (if required) for students to complete the degree conferral procedure.

1.2.10. VLU will appoint a responsible individual to maintain regular communications with UH and Program Office staff to ensure open communications and active cooperation between the parties. Any issues or concerns will be brought to the attention of VLU and UH in a timely manner so that they can be addressed and resolved to the satisfaction of both parties.

Article 2: GOVERNANCE AND RISK MANAGEMENT

2.1. VEMBA Board of Trustees. With consultation with VLU, UH will form a VEMBA Board of Trustees with the goal to ensure the VEMBA program is run effectively.

2.1.1. The Board of Trustees consists of pro-bono volunteers with nine members, including academics and alumni interested in promoting VEMBA.

2.1.2. The Board has the fiduciary duty to program quality in Vietnam and its financial well-being. It provides suggestions and support to the effectiveness of the program delivery, through program design and budget evaluation.

2.1.3. With consultation with VLU, the Dean of the Shidler College of Business appoints the trustees for a three-year term.

2.1.4. In consultation with the UH VEMBA Faculty Director and Program Manager, VLU will present its annual operating budget.

2.2. Program Governance.

2.2.1. Accounting practices. Given the differences in accounting practices in the two countries, and all the book-keeping of the business education program is executed in the State of Hawai'i as a non-for-profit institution, UH agrees to share a percentage of the tuition and fees collected to VLU to assist VLU in achieving its education, training and research endeavors.

2.2.2. Teaching materials. All books and materials used in the program will be original and meet copyright law. UH-Shidler will select all books and materials available for the students to purchase at their own cost.

2.2.3. Program guidelines. The Appendix describes the Program Guidelines governing the requirements of the VEMBA Program.

2.2.4. Problem resolutions. UH and VLU share the responsibility for solving claims related to academic issues based on the regulations of both parties and benefits of students;

2.2.5. In case of any unsolvable disagreements: The Agreement between two parties will be ended by giving a 6-month notice in writing to the other party; however, both parties must ensure there is no damage to the enrolled students at that time.

2.3. Compliance with Laws. Each party shall comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, codes, rules, and regulations during the term of this Agreement.

Article 3: GENERAL CONDITIONS

3.1. Counterparts. This MOA may be executed by the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when executed and delivered shall be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

3.2. Entire Agreement. This MOA constitutes the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all oral or written agreements, understandings, and communications relating to such subject matter between the parties hereto prior to the Effective Date.

3.3. Modification of Agreement. Any modification, alteration, amendment, change, or extension of any term, provision, or condition of this MOA shall be made only by written amendment to this MOA, signed by both parties.

3.4. Use of Name/Marks. Neither party shall use the name or marks of the other in any press materials or web-based or other publication without the prior written permission of the other party.

3.5. Compliance with Institutional Policies. It is the intent of the parties to abide by all current and future UH policies and VLU policies. If any term or condition in this Agreement is identified as inconsistent with UH policies and/or VLU policies, that term or condition will be renegotiated.

3.6. Force Majeure. If a Force Majeure Event (as defined herein) prevents, interferes, or restricts the performance of this MOA, the affected party shall use reasonable efforts to promptly notify the other party in writing (i) that it is unable to perform, and (ii) the expected duration of such inability.

During the duration of a Force Majeure Event, neither party shall be liable for any failure, delay, or interruption in performing its obligations hereunder due to causes or conditions beyond its reasonable control, and not due to any fault or negligence of the party affected. The affected party shall use its reasonable efforts to resume performance as soon as possible.

A Force Majeure Event includes, but is not limited to, strikes, boycotts, picketing, slow-downs, work stoppages, or labor disputes; restrictions or requirements imposed by laws or government actions with the force and effect of law; priorities, rationing, curtailment, or shortage of labor or materials; war, revolution, acts of terrorism, or any matter or thing resulting therefrom; embargoes, acts of God, or severe weather or climatic conditions (such as storms, hurricanes, typhoons, earthquakes, tornadoes, eruptions, earth movements, tsunamis, and floods); acts of the public enemy, acts of superior governmental authority, riots, rebellion, sabotage, fire, or accidents; epidemics, pandemics, quarantines, or regional, national, or international public health emergencies; or any other cause or causes beyond the reasonable control of the affected party or parties.

3.7. Notices. Any notice required or permitted to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be (i) mailed by certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, (ii) sent by overnight air courier service, (iii) personally delivered to a representative of the receiving party, (iv) sent by facsimile (provided an identical notice is also sent simultaneously by mail, overnight courier, or personal delivery), or (v) sent by email (provided receipt thereof is confirmed via email or in writing by the recipient) and any such notice shall be deemed given (A) when received if personally delivered or sent by overnight air courier service, (B) on the date of transmission if sent by facsimile transmission, (C) three business days after being deposited in the mail, certified, postage prepaid and return receipt requested, or (D) when received if sent in an email, the receipt of which has been confirmed by the recipient. All such communications shall be mailed, sent or delivered, addressed to the party for whom it is intended, using the contact information provided below. A party may change its address for notices by giving written notice of any such change to the other party.

APPENDIX: VEMBA PROGRAM GUIDELINES

UH Executive MBA Program

The Program Guidelines set forth the policies in conjunction with the VEMBA Program to be offered by the University of Hawai'i Shidler College of Business in cooperation with Van Lang University (VLU). These guidelines are subject to change as needed.

OVERVIEW OF THE VEMBA PROGRAM

VEMBA is a cohort-based Vietnam-centric regional program version of the UH Shidler College of Business MBA degree. To support the integration of Vietnam's economy in the new context of the global economy, the program seeks to attract not only Vietnamese business executives, but also international candidates interested in doing business with Vietnam, either expatriates currently working in Vietnam or executives working in neighboring countries.

The current VEMBA program curriculum is similar to other MBA programs at Shidler, consisting of 16 courses (48 credits), including 8 core courses, 7 electives and a practicum course before graduation. Each course consists of 12 class sessions. To achieve the regional vision, courses are delivered in a hybrid format, using a proprietary "Residence Weekend " model, with the first 4 sessions held in an in-person format delivered in a 2-to-3-day meeting, conducted at a venue conducive to executive education with focus on teamwork. Whenever justified, a course might have more than four sessions.

With the approval of the Faculty Director, VEMBA students who wish to undertake classes at the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa campus on Oahu may take up to two courses, either in summer session one or summer session two, as a substitute for electives offered in Vietnam at no extra charge. But, admission to this MBA Program does not imply automatic admission to the MBA Programs in Hawaii. Separate application for any one of the Hawaii-based programs is required.

VEMBA students successfully completing the program shall receive a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa.

GENERAL PARAMETERS AND STRUCTURE

1. Vision: The two parties aim to position VEMBA as the premier regional business executive education.

2. Instruction. Instruction will be delivered by qualified faculty selected by the UH's Shidler College of Business following AACSB accreditation standards.

3. Delivery mode: Hybrid with a targeted 70% to 30% online, with a flexibility to reach 50% in-person if teaching effectiveness is called for.

4. Admission requirements

To gain admission, students will have to:

A. Obtain a Bachelor's degree from an accredited or recognized university listed in the UH database of recognized institutions;
B. Have the equivalent of an undergraduate 3.0 GPA or one or more additional graduate-level GPAs with a compensating score. Exceptional candidates with a GPA under 3.0 would be considered if other qualifications meet requirements;
C. Submit certified transcripts for all post-secondary school work with the official Dai Hoc (university) stamp or the originals;
D. Submit a copy of the degree and degree certificate with the Dai Hoc (university) stamp or the originals along with certified translations;
E. For anything missing in the aforementioned requirements, students will have to submit an explanation from their university explaining that the student's records are unavailable but that the student graduated in good standing;
F. Have a minimum TOEFL iBT Score of 61, or IELTS Score of 5.5. Any admitted student who does not earn above a TOEFL iBT 100 or IELTS equivalent of 7.0, will be required to take two English courses offered in the Vietnam Executive MBA program (VEMBA) by the University of Hawai'i's English Language Institute (ELI);
G. Have five years of work experience or equivalent;
H. Submit at least two letters of recommendation;
I. Pass a personal interview and written case analysis;
J. Pay admission fee;
K. Complete all of the above requirements by published deadlines.

PROGRAM FINANCES

1. Number of enrolled students: VEMBA is a cohort-based program. UH is mandated to cover its actual expenses. The minimum number of students per cohort should be 40 to keep the program financially viable. On a steady-state basis, with two overlapping, on-going cohorts, the minimum combined number of enrolled students should be 80.

2. Tuition fees and other program fees

2.1. UH shall collect tuition fees (English tuition fee for those who are required, course tuition fee), and program fees on behalf of the UH system (admission fee, graduation application fee) of all enrolled students.

2.2. Students are required to pay UH full semester tuition fee before the semester starts or sign up for the UH payment plan with a fee, as offered to all UH students.

2.3. All tuition fees and program fees shall be paid to UH in US dollars.

2.4. UH keeps track/ updates student payment status. Financial and academic units of both parties will closely coordinate to make sure student registration is updated and payment is made fully and timely.

3. Revenue sharing and obligations

3.1. Tuition sharing:

UH agrees to share 20% of total collected tuition per semester per cohort for up to 39 students.

UH agrees to share 25% of total collected tuition per semester per cohort from the 40th student or more who are fully registered.

3.2. VLU obligations

3.2.1. VLU will provide an office area for UH-Shidler, a minimum of two full-time staff to serve the VEMBA program delivery, and access to classrooms based on mutually planned and agreed activities.

3.2.2. VLU will cover the costs for Marketing and Recruitment.

3.2.3. VLU will assist in the logistics and cover the expenses of the in-person portion of the program delivery.

a. First Residence Weekend (RW): The first RW is the signature of the VEMBA program consisting of orientation, initiation to business education, team building, and the first course – Organizational Behavior (BUS626). In addition to the first 4 in-person sessions (12 hours; or 30% of the course) for BUS 626, the first RW includes 8 additional hours devoted to program orientation, time management, introduction to statistics and quantitative analysis, and team building activities. The first RW will be organized off campus, at a venue away from their residences in order to encourage the students to get acquainted with the executive business education learning mode (typically at a resort hotel).

b. Fourteen subsequent Residence Weekends: each will include 4 in-person course sessions out of a total of 12 course sessions per course. They should be organized at a venue that is most effective for learning and most cost-effective logistically.

3.2.4. For all in-person class sessions using the residence weekend format, VLU will be responsible for providing meals, tea breaks, refreshments, and other required logistical support for all students, faculty, staff. The students who do not reside at the venue where the RW is organized (more than 30 km between their residence and the RW location) will receive a subsidy based on best practices for compensation to defray some of their travel expenses. This amount will be discussed at the annual budget meeting between VLU and UH, with the consultation of the Board of Trustees.

3.2.5. VLU will coordinate and host the VEMBA graduation ceremony traditionally held off campus to promote and preserve the image of a world-class business program.

3.2.6. VLU will pay UH's tax obligations on UH's behalf out of collected tuition revenue. Within three months of tax payment, VLU shall provide Shidler College of Business with written evidence that applicable taxes have been duly paid.

3.3. UH obligations. UH will wire the tuition share in U.S. dollars to VLU in February for Fall semesters and October for Spring and Summer semesters.
